

FADS 40th

A photograph of two men in formal attire, likely at a wedding or gala. The man on the left is seen in profile, wearing glasses, a white shirt, a patterned tie, and a dark suit jacket. The man on the right is facing him, wearing a white tuxedo shirt with a white bow tie and a dark tuxedo jacket. They appear to be in conversation. The background shows a hallway with a floral-patterned wall and a doorway. A bouquet of flowers is visible in the lower-left foreground, partially obscured by a dark, out-of-focus object.

Please welcome....

DANCE DERBY

Original Production by Company Chordelia in a co-production with Scottish Opera*

Relive the drama and emotion of the gruelling dance marathons that took place across America during the Great Depression. Energetic and touching in equal measure, Dance Derby is the powerful story of ordinary people, dancing for their lives.

*Written & Created by Kally Lloyd-Jones
Original Designs by Janis Hart
Original Musical Arrangements for Company Chordelia
by Kennedy Aitchison

It's ladies' night!!

What's the shock?...

Lorna doesn't look too happy either...

OMG!!

OMG!!

Sorry about that!!

Let us pray for censorship, sisters.

Ahh... back to good taste!

A woman with short, curly brown hair, wearing a light blue denim button-down shirt, stands on a stage. She has a surprised or questioning expression on her face. Her right arm is extended outwards. In the background, there is a dark blue curtain and some stage equipment. Two other people are visible in the background: one behind a drum set and another to the right. A large blue speech bubble is overlaid on the right side of the image, containing white text.

You mean I have to work with John
Lightbody
AGAIN?

Guess whose legs?

OMG! Pray harder, sisters!

We'll pray too!

And we've gone forth and multiplied.
